Why am I Blue? A Story About Being Yourself

A blue frog wonders why he's blue and not green like the other frogs. He feels confused, sad and different. One day he hears a simple but profound explanation and begins to accept being different from his friends.

Pre-school - Grade 2

This book includes a note to parents from the American Psychological Association on helping children deal with differences.

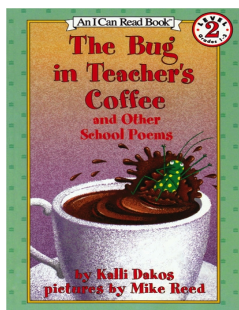

A Funeral in the Bathroom

From "Blabbermouth" to "Flushophobic" to "There's a Sock in the Toilet", Kalli's poems reveal the funny and sometimes poignant stories that take place in the bathroom. Marc Beech's zany illustrations perfectly express the ups and downs of school life.
